30 any installation, plant or system used for any of the following purposes:

- (i) the provision of any telecommunication service or radio-communication service to that land or building;
- (ii) the provision of any telecommunication service or radio-communication service to any other land or building; and”;
- (c) by inserting, immediately after subsection (5), the following subsection:

“(5A) If there is any inconsistency between —

- (a) a code of practice issued under subsection (1); and
- (b) any provision in an agreement or arrangement entered into between a telecommunication licensee and the developer or owner of any land or building, or between the developer or owner and the occupant of that land or building, the code prevails and the provision is void to the extent of its inconsistency with the code.”

Amendment of section 21

9. Section 21 of the Telecommunications Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

“(1) Where the Authority considers it necessary that any telecommunication service should be provided to any land or building, whether completed or not, or to any occupant of that land or building, or that the quality of a telecommunication service provided to any land or building or to any occupant of that land or building should be enhanced, the Authority may by direction —

- (a) require the developer or owner of the land or building to provide at the developer’s or owner’s expense, within such period as may be specified in the direction, such space or facility within or on that land or building, and access to that land or building, as the Authority may specify in its direction; and

5 (b) require any telecommunication licensee to install, within such period as may be specified in the direction, such installation, plant or system as the Authority considers necessary for the provision, or the enhancement of quality, of 10 the telecommunication service to that land or building or to the occupant of that land or building.”;

(b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (1A), the following subsections:

15 “(1B) Where —

(a) the Authority considers it necessary that in relation to any land or building, whether completed or not (called in this section the particular property), a radio-communication service should be provided to the particular property or the quality of a radio-communication service provided to the particular property should be enhanced; and 20

(b) the Authority is satisfied that it would be in the public interest for a telecommunication licensee providing radio-communication service to install any installation, plant or system within or on any other land or building in order to serve the particular property or enhance the quality of a radio-communication service provided to the particular property,
25

the Authority may by direction —

(i) require the developer or owner of the other land or building referred to in paragraph (b) to provide, at the developer’s or owner’s expense, within such period as may be specified in the direction, such space or facility within or on the other land or building, and access to the other land or building, as the Authority may specify in its direction; and

- (ii) require the telecommunication licensee to install within or on the other land or building, within such period as may be specified in the direction, such installation, plant or system as the Authority considers necessary for the provision or enhancement of the quality of the radio-communication service to the particular property.

(1C) If there is any inconsistency between —

(a) a direction issued under subsection (1), (1A), (1B) or (4); and

(b) any provision in an agreement or arrangement entered into between a telecommunication licensee and the developer or owner of any land or building, or between the developer or owner and the occupant of that land or building, the direction prevails and the provision is void to the extent of its inconsistency with the direction.”;

(c) deleting the words “under subsection (1) or (1A)” in subsection (2) and substituting the words “under subsection (1), (1A) or (1B)”;

(d) deleting the words “notify the developer or owner of the licensee’s intention” in subsection (2) and substituting the words “give 14 days’ notice to the developer or owner, stating as fully and accurately as possible the nature and extent of the acts intended to be done”;

(e) by deleting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The developer or owner of the land or building may, within 14 days after the receipt of the notice under subsection (2), lodge a written objection with the Authority.

5 (3A) Where a written objection is lodged by the developer or owner of the land or building under subsection (3) (called in this section the objector) the Authority must notify the telecommunication licensee to resolve the objection with the objector.

10 (3B) On receipt of the Authority’s notice under subsection (3A), the telecommunication licensee must use all reasonable efforts to resolve the objection with the objector.

15 (3C) If the telecommunication licensee fails to resolve the objection, the licensee must inform the Authority in writing and also furnish all relevant information relating to the efforts employed by the licensee.

20 (3D) After receipt of the information referred to in subsection (3C), the Authority must notify the telecommunication licensee and the objector as to whether the Authority is satisfied that the licensee has used all reasonable efforts to resolve the objection

25 (3E) The Authority must hold an inquiry (in such manner as the Authority thinks fit) on the objection, giving each party an opportunity to be heard if —

(a) the objection is not withdrawn; and

(b) the Authority notifies under subsection (3D) that the Authority is satisfied that the licensee has used all reasonable efforts to resolve the objection.

30 (3F) Upon the conclusion of the inquiry, the Authority may authorise, either unconditionally or subject to such terms, conditions and stipulations as the Authority thinks fit, any of the acts mentioned in the notice given under subsection (2) to be carried out.

(3G) The telecommunication licensee may enter on the land or building and do all or any of the acts mentioned in the notice given under subsection (2), subject to the Authority's terms, conditions and stipulations if any imposed under subsection (3F) —

(a) where no objection is lodged within the period specified in subsection (3), after the expiry of that period;

(b) where an objection is lodged under subsection (3) —

(i) after the objection is withdrawn;

(ii) after the telecommunication licensee resolves the objection with the objector; or

New section 21A

10. The Telecommunications Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 21, the following section:

“Prohibition against exclusive agreements or arrangements

21A.—(1) The developer or owner of any land or building —

(a) must not enter into or enforce any agreement or arrangement with any occupant of the land or building that restricts or prevents the occupant from selecting any supplier of telecommunication systems and services to provide telecommunication services to the occupant;

5 (b) must not enter into or enforce any agreement or arrangement with any telecommunication licensee that restricts or prevents other telecommunication licensees from installing their installation, plant or system in the land or building or supplying telecommunication systems and services to the land or building or 10 supplying telecommunication services to any occupant of the land or building.

(2) The Authority may give such directions as the Authority thinks fit to be observed by the telecommunication licensee, developer or owner of the land or building to ensure 15 compliance with subsection (1).

(3) If there is any inconsistency between —

(a) a direction issued under subsection (2); and

(b) any provision in an agreement or arrangement entered
20 into between a telecommunication licensee and the developer or owner of any land or building, or between the developer or owner and the occupant of that land or building, the direction prevails and the provision is void to the extent of its inconsistency with the direction.

25 (4) The Authority may at any time vary, suspend or revoke the whole or any part of a direction under subsection (2).

(5) Any person who fails to comply with any requirement in a direction given under this section shall be guilty of an offence.”.

30 Amendment of section 26

11. Section 26(1) of the Telecommunications Act is amended by inserting immediately after paragraph (vii) the following paragraph:

5 “(viiia) the authorisation of telecommunication licensees to collect, use or disclose information about subscribers of the licensees’ telecommunication services, without the subscribers’ consents, including information about the subscribers’ personal data, telecommunication subscription and usage;”.

30 subsection (8) and substituting the words “Without limiting subsection (7) —”.

New section 32DA

13. The Telecommunications Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 32D, the following section:

5 “Power to issue directions to enforce conditions imposed by Authority when approving application under section 32B(5), (6) or (7)

32DA.—(1) Without limiting section 27, the Authority may issue a direction under subsection (2) if —

10 (a) a person (referred to in this section as the specified person) —

(i) is a 12% controller or 30% controller of a designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust;

15 (ii) owns any business (of a designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust) that is conducted pursuant to a telecommunication licence granted under section 5, or any part of any such business, as a going concern; or

20 (iii) has effective control over a designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust;

(b) the Authority has, in granting its written approval to the specified person under section 32B(5), (6) or (7) in respect of any telecommunication licensee, business trust or trust, imposed a condition that the specified person must transfer or dispose of all or any part of —

25 (i) the shares which the specified person holds, or which the specified person and his associates together hold, in the designated telecommunication licensee (referred to in this section as the specified shares);

- 5
- (ii) the units which the specified person holds, or which the specified person and his associates together hold, in the designated business trust (referred to in this section as the specified units); or
- 10
- (iii) the equity interests which the specified person holds, or which the specified person and his associates together hold, in the designated trust (referred to in this section as the specified equity interest); and
- (c) the Authority is satisfied that the condition has not been complied with.
- (2) The Authority may, in the circumstances specified in subsection (1), issue any or all of the following directions:
- 15
- (a) direct the specified person, or any associate of the specified person, to transfer or dispose of all or any part of the specified shares, specified units or specified equity interests, as the case may be, within such time and subject to such conditions as the Authority specifies;
- 20
- (b) direct the specified person to transfer or dispose of all or any part of the business that is conducted under a telecommunication licence granted under section 5, and that is acquired from the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust as a going concern, within such time and subject to such conditions as the Authority specifies;
- 25
- (c) direct the specified person to relinquish effective control over the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust, within such time and subject to such conditions as the Authority specifies;
- 30
- (d) direct —

- 5 (i) the specified person, or any associate of the specified person, or the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust, to procure the issue of such number of shares, units or equity interests in the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust, as the case may be, as the Authority may determine, within such time and subject to such conditions as the Authority specifies; and
- 10
- 15 (ii) the specified person, or any associate of the specified person, to transfer or dispose of all or any part of the specified shares, specified units or specified equity interests, in the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust, as the case may be, within such time and subject to such conditions as the Authority specifies;
- 20 (3) Before issuing a direction to any person under subsection (2), the Authority must, unless the Authority decides that it is not practicable or desirable to do so, cause to be given to that person written notice of the Authority's intention to issue the direction, specifying a date by which that person may make written representations with regard to the proposed
- 25 direction.
- (4) Upon receipt of any written representation under subsection (3), the Authority must consider the representation for the purpose of determining whether to issue the direction.
- 30 (5) Any person to whom a direction is given under subsection (2) must comply with the direction.
- (6) The Authority may at any time vary, suspend or revoke any direction issued under this section.
- 35 (7) Any direction issued to a person under subsection (2) takes effect, despite —

(a) the Business Trusts Act (Cap. 31A), Companies Act (Cap. 50), Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A) and Trustees Act (Cap 337);

(b) any listing rule as defined in section 2(1) of the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289); or

(c) the provisions of the memorandum or articles of association, trust deed or other constitution of the specified person, the designated telecommunication licensee, designated business trust or designated trust.

(8) Any person (other than a designated telecommunication licensee) who contravenes subsection (5) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $125,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $12,500 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding $250,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $25,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.”.
